HINTS FROM THE PEOPLE.

There is no test for worth so reliable as the crucible of experience in which to try men, whether in public or private affairs. Our Council came into office in July, yet there is little work so far accomplished of exalted merit. It is not because there is nothing left to be done surely, for that to be done seems plentiful while that done is scarce indeed. THE TIMES does not say these things in a carping vein nor in a spirit of censure, but that the Councilmen may be reminded of what expectations have been raised, and how hard a work it is to fulfill them at best. Now, we have a right to expect that with so strong an organization of municipal authorities as has been established under the new charter, the work of municipal improvement and general public affairs will run on like Tennyson's brook, "forever and forever" in merry and systematic flow.

With a board of public works, an expensive engineer's office, a Council and a mayor, it does seem that we should be able to have the most systematic city in the republic. On the contrary the streets are impassable in many directions and a stranger with a vehicle is almost compelled to employ a guide to get him into town. If this work had been let and an agreement drawn binding the contractors not to obstruct any street for more than three days at a time, which we believe is the limit of time that the city has the right to obstruct a public thoroughfare, they would be in better condition and more passable than to-day.

There is a poor house farm belonging to the city and the only attention given to the matter until lately seems to have been to consider it a poor farm with a house on it for the superintendent.
Nobody said anything about it and nobody did anything about it.

There is about $34,000 worth of school property here and about $14,000 to $18,000 is disbursed annually for education, yet nobody is especially charged with this matter to know whether the money is wasted or whether the people receive quid pro quo. We understand that the school board is alive and alert and have urged some reform in this matter for another year, but we have heard of no action from the Council in that direction. This is considered one of the most important branches of government in all well regulated cities.
There is no reason why Roanoke should be an exception to this rule, yet the city pays lavish salaries in all directions, but this.

The excellent system of street railway is a thing to be proud of, but it needs some little restrictions as to speed through the city. A man for rapid riding or driving would be fined, but a car runs through the streets at a much greater speed unchallenged.
There is nothing vicious or wrong about this, but it is a little inconsistent and might be easily regulated. Then there are several streets broken up and left so—Salem avenue, for instance. Probably the mayor and board of public works may not have noticed this.

Again we desire to say that we are not speaking in a complaining manner, but only drawing attention to things which need it. We believe Council is going to make a good record, but it takes time to get started, and public matters should be done deliberately. We shall be glad to chronicle the good deeds of our legislative body, or of our executive head, or of our board of public works, but we can do no more at present than to point in the direction the people are looking for action, and then hope for action in the near future.

THE CHOLERA.

The impression is gaining ground that the New York health office lacks frankness in dealing with the public. Cholera has existed in that city for ten days, and its peculiar characteristics are readily detected, yet the matter is concealed until five deaths have occurred at four different and widely separate points, indicating as many different centers of infection.

Now put the case plainly. The average cholera death rate is not over 50 per cent. Then where are the other five cases which at the lowest estimate should exist to bear out the proportion?
Scattered over the country or still being "inspected" in New York?

There is too much Tammany in the New York board of health and too little medical science. Now that the disease is in, Dr. Jenkins calmly announces that no quarantine can maintain over 70 per cent. of effectiveness. We predict that several of the quarantines which will now be in order against New York will maintain 100 per cent. of effectiveness.

GROVER CLEVELAND has served the people of the United States four years, and therefore is no experiment.
During the time he was President there was an era of unprecedented prosperity all over the country. The business men were satisfied, the business interests were subserved and all went prosperously on. He opposed all trusts and combinations which claimed undue exemptions, and he bravely met every contingency that arose. If he is elected President again we may look forward to another period of similar sort—with plenty and prosperity smiling over a peaceful land. We do not want to be understood as asserting that Mr. Harrison's administration has brought upon us these stringent times, which all feel and have been nearly contemporaneous with his term, yet they are here and people can draw their own inferences.

The extract from the Durham, N. C., Daily Globe, headed "Kicking Hard, Earnestly and Persistently Against Pensions," and reproduced by THE TIMES of Tuesday, the 13th, was discovered in the New York Herald on the 12th by THE TIMES exchange editor, and reproduced, heading and all. For the benefit of our friends who were afraid the article in question was indorsed by THE TIMES, we would state that there is a fool born every minute.

To Teach Music.

Miss Ruth Coleman, late of Memphis, is stopping at the Ponce de Leon, where she will receive pupils in instrumental music and voice culture. She comes to Roanoke with strong testimonials and high recommendations. She is a graduate of the Cincinnati College of Music, and has held the position of instructor of instrumental music at Tusculum Female Seminary. She refers, by permission, to Mrs. Young Fulton, 23 Union square, New York; Prof. William H. Henninger, Cleveland, Ohio; Prof.
Charles W. Wright, Chicago, Ill., and Mr. J. D. Hobbie, of Roanoke.

To Entertain the Cricketers.

At a recent meeting of the Norfolk and Western Cricket Club, of Roanoke, a committee, comprising J. Longstreth, E. Hughes and J. Devan, was appointed to meet the team of Pennsylvania Railroad Cricket Club on Saturday morning and conduct them to Hotel Roanoke for breakfast.

Wickets will be pitched at 11 o'clock and drawn at 6 p. m.

Both teams will be entertained at dinner at Hotel Roanoke. There will be seats for the accommodation of visitors provided.

THE TIME EXTENDED.

The Primary Contest for Prizes Will Not Close Until Monday.

Owing to the great interest manifested in the primary contest for prizes voted for at the Machine Works Guards Fair the judges have decided to keep the polls open until Monday, Sept. 19, at 6 o'clock p. m. They will surely close at that hour, and the result will be announced the next morning.

The judges of the contest have been requested to separate the votes for the most popular railroad conductor into three divisions, namely, Eastern, Western and Shenandoah Valley. This will be done and the conductor on each division receiving the highest number of votes will be entitled to enter the contest for the gold scarf pin when the fair opens.
It has been decided to open the fair Wednesday, September 21. The voting is progressing at a lively rate.

Fill out the following ballot and forward it to THE TIMES office. But one name can be written on a ballot, but a person may vote as often as he chooses on separate ballots. The judges are Captain Perkins, H. A. Colman and P.
C. Leary.

THE DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COM-MITTEE.

Arrangements Made Last Night to Conduct a Vigorous Campaign.

The Democratic executive committee held its usual weekly meeting last night with a good attendance. A committee was appointed to look after speaking and to make any other arrangements in regard to the campaign.

A finance committee was also appointed, composed of the following gentlemen: Messrs. Huff, Duiguid, Beckloff, Walsh and Bohn. It being almost a sure thing that Stevenson will speak in this city the 26th inst., the following gentlemen have been invited to be present: Hons. B. B. Gordon, John W.
Daniel, Paul C. Edmunds, James W.
Marshall and John H. Hoge.

The secretary was instructed to request each ward to form as soon as possible a Cleveland and Stevenson club and to help in other ways the Democratic cause until the election. A motion prevailed that each member of the committee purchase and pay for his own badge to be worn on public occasions.

The committee is down to hard work, and no stone will be left untaken to give Roanoke the largest Democratic majority that was ever known. It is especially desired that every member of the committee be present at the meeting next Thursday night, as business of importance will be transacted.

The Concert Last Night.

The concert given at the Opera House last night under the auspices of the choir of St. John's Episcopal Church was not very well attended. The singing of Miss Elizabeth A. Taylor was the chief feature. Her voice is pleasing and shows cultivation. The chorus work, however, was heavy and showed a lack of phrasing.

The solos by S. B. Cary and Thomas McVeigh were well rendered, although S. B. Cary lacked sympathy from the accompanist in his first number. The piano used on the occasion was kindly loaned by the Hobbie Music Company.
This piano, a Sohmer grand, possesses a rare quality of tone, affording the performer opportunity to reproduce in an effective manner the idea of the composer.

The Team Selected.

The Roanoke cricketers held a meeting last night and selected the team which will play the Philadelphia R. R.
C. C. The following players were chosen: Captain, Jos. Longstreth, T. B.
Jackson, C. E. Graves, M. W. Ferguson, Jas. Devan, W. H. Howells, Wm. Leigh, G. C. Hughes, R. D. Lankford, O. A.
Kerns, F. W. Edmead, E. Hughes.
Umpire, C. H. Grindrod.

Will Double Their Capacity.

Waller P. Huff left last night for Louisiana and Texas on business for the Roanoke Mineral Wool Company, of which he is president. The directors of this plant contemplate doubling the present capacity to justify the demand for the wool.

An Accident at the Furnace.

Sandy Shoaf, an employee of the West End Furnace, had his hands and fingers badly crushed and lacerated yesterday by getting them caught in the wheel of a coke buggy while greasing it. The surgical aid was rendered by L. B.
Gatch, the assistant of Dr. Gale.

Look Out, Property Owners.

Mayor Trout has ordered a sanitary inspection by the police of every house in the city. Those owning property upon which any nuisance in found will be given 12 hours to abate the same. If not abated the owners will be proceeded against according to law.

Arrested for Forgery.

W. A. Huff, of Kentucky, was arrested yesterday on a warrant charging him with forging the name of G. T. Center, of Mt. Sterling, Ky., to a check for $65.
The authorities at that place have been notified and the prisoner will be held until the arrival of the officers.

The Track Cleared.

The latest news from the scene of the wreck report that the track was cleared and trains running as usual at 5 a. m. yesterday. Conductor Upde-grove's remains were removed to Dauphin, Pa., and will be interred at 10 o'clock this morning.

Sold at Auction.

The stock of groceries and fixtures lately assigned by C. F. Blount were sold in a bulk yesterday at public auction to V. P. Moir for $2,350. That amount will enable the trustee to pay all the preferred creditors, leaving a balance to be divided among other creditors.

PRESS COMMENTS.

Peary's Return.

From the New York Tribune.
The return of the Kite with Lieutenant Peary and his party is a matter of universal interest, and so is the success of his expedition to Greenland. Both the Lieutenant and his brave wife are reported from St. John's as being in good health. Peary made a sledge journey of 1,300 miles over the inland ice and confirmed his theories regarding the physical status of that little known quarter of the globe. His journey occupied 90 days. The expedition appears to have been completely successful though unhappily the meteorologist of the party lost his life while making a little trip on his own account.

Tammany Hall.

From the New York Sun.
Tammany Hall in the past has been the favorite object of Mugwump attack.
Why? Because of its strength and the successful operation of its political methods. For that very reason now every sensible Mugwump rejoices that the Democracy has a leader in this campaign so indomitable. Everybody who wishes Democratic triumph is to-day a Tammany man.

The charges and insinuations of the enemies of the Democracy, that Mr.
Cleveland feared to associate himself with the Tammany chiefs, have been shown to be false and slanderous. The Tammany plan of campaign and the Tammany methods are his. Of course, they are his, for they are those of every Democrat who desires victory and not defeat next November. Down with the force bill! is the Tammany cry, and it is the cry which down all others as the Democratic host marches to victory.

Shocking Bad News.

From the Alexandria Gazette.
The news from Maine is shockingly bad to Mr. Harrison, and shows that that State is by no means so hell-bent on going for the Republicans as it was for the famous Governor Kent in the earlier and better days of the republic.
Mr. Harrison's majority in 1888 was 23,353. The Republican majority there yesterday was hardly 12,000. Evidently all is not well with the Republican party. A few more such victories as those it has just achieved in Vermont and Maine and its effective force will be utterly destroyed.

Common Sense Athletics.

From the Atlanta Constitution.
According to a leading medical journal 5,000 soldiers who were examined by a surgeon were found to be suffering, fully 80 per cent. of them, from heart trouble due to forced exertion.

It is believed that fully as large a percentage of the athletes of to-day will, twenty-five years hence, suffer in the same way in consequence of their excessive exercise. The fact is, athletic sports are not conducive to longevity.
In France, where there is very little of the present craze for muscular development, there are more people over the age of sixty than there are in England, where physical culture is carried to its extreme limit. Our medical contemporary goes on to say:

"Great athletes die young, and a mortality list of Oxford men who had rowed in the 'varsity' races shows that a comparatively small percentage of them lived out the allotted time. If our readers will bear in mind the difference between 'athletic sports,' as typified by contests, and rational exercise, as typified by walking, riding, rowing, skating and the like in moderation, then will they be prepared to ratify the above assertion. Exercise really means motion; and with motion as with roast beef, while moderation means health, excess means disaster and disease. Exercise carried to the point of exertion is disastrous; exercise confined within the limit of fatigue is wholesome."

Common sense is needed in these sports and contests, and, where common sense leads, moderation will always follow.

It Presages Victory.

From the Richmond Dispatch.
The Democrats everywhere are hoping for victory. Nay, they are confident. They look upon Cleveland's election as certain to follow if the campaign shall go on as it has begun. The Democratic triumph in Arkansas and Alabama and the Republican losses in Maine and Vermont have in them nothing to encourage the Republicans. The advocates of the force bill cannot pretend to believe that a majority of the voters favor it.

But we repeat what we have often said—namely, that victory comes not from boasting but from hard work. We must fight hard battle if we would elect our ticket. The result predicted will certainly come if we do our duty.

In Virginia everything promises a Democratic victory this fall. The dwindling away of the Third party or parties will not cease until election day, when the few then left will fall into line with their Democratic brethren.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Sept. 15.—[Special]— Representative Oates (Dem.) has sioner of the Chicago Exposition writes that almost the entire exhibit is to be sent to Chicago to constitute Ecuador's exhibit at the World's Fair. The display includes lace in great variety, leather goods, wood carving, gold and silver filigree work, paintings, and many varieties of fiber, several of which are said to be very abundant and of such an exceptionally fine quality as to be destined in time to become the basis of very great industrial and commercial interests.
